

"OLEO" FRAUDS HAVE COST $27,000,000

More Than 200,000,000 Pounds Manufactured and Fraudulently Sold.

The Treasury Department has lost at least $27,000,000 in taxes through oleomargarine frauds, according to a statement just made public by the secretary. Figures prepared by the Internal Revenue Bureau show that since 1902 more than 200,000,000 pounds of colored oleomargarine have been manufactured and fraudulently sold as uncolored oleomargarine or as butter.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Osborn has recovered and turned in to the Treasury $881,000, and there is prospect of further large collections. Forty-two violators have been convicted since January 1, last, twenty-nine of whom have been sentenced to terms in prison ranging from thirty days to three and a half years.

Fines Imposed Total $148,000
Total fines of $148,000 have been imposed. Ten other violators of the law are under arrest and indictment, and many small criminal cases are pending in the courts.

The law imposes a tax of 10 cents a pound on colored oleomargarine and one-fourth of a cent a pound on the uncolored product. Collection of the tax was designed to prevent the selling of oleomargarine as butter and to put a penalty on giving it a butter color. This was done to protect the farmer.

6,000 Cases of Fraud.
In the past two years fully 6,000 cases of fraud have been developed, it is declared. While there was a total of $27,000,000 in taxes due the Government from such frauds, extending over a long period of years, only $4,600,000 was within the assessment period of two years. Suits have been entered to recover in cases where assessment is prevented by the limitation period. In cases where arrests have been made, plants have been seized on the assessments.

It is believed that the campaign made by Commissioner Osborn has effectively checked widespread fraud.

Body of Needham Delayed at Paris

Definite Instructions Awaited From Widow of American Writer Killed by Aero.

Awaiting definite instructions from his widow as to her wishes, the body of Henry Needham, magazine writer and war correspondent, lies in Paris today, his casket beside that of Lieut. R. A. J. Warneford, of the British navy, with whom he was making an aeroplane flight when he lost his life.

The two caskets were taken to Paris from the mortuary chapel in which they rested at Versailles, awaiting funeral services, arrangements for which have been canceled, according to word received here today.

They lie in the American Church of the Holy Trinity, and are flanked by flowers. General Gallieni and Gallipoli and many other officers of the French army and notable people sent large quantities of flowers to be placed around the coffins containing the bodies.

A small aeroplane made of flowers was laid on Warneford's coffin by the officers and men of the English hospital. On the left wing was the Victoria Cross, on the right the Legion of Honor.

The propeller, composed of white roses, bears the inscription: "Honored by the King, admired by the empire, but mourned by all."

Warneford's body will be transported to England tomorrow morning under a guard of honor. A military funeral will be held at London and will be national in character.

Justice Siddons Ill, Henry Trial Delayed

Because of the indisposition of Justice Siddons, the trial of John William Henry, former member of the bankrupt brokerage firm of Lewis Johnson and Company, charged with the embezzlement of $41,000 entrusted to him by Mrs. Isabella Barkley of Wayne, Pa., for stock speculation, was not resumed today.

The jury was respite until tomorrow, when Justice Siddons expects to be able to continue the trial. It is probable the case will consume the remainder of the week.

AMERICAN HEBREWS TO CALL CONFERENCE

Will Organize for Purpose of Aiding Their Brothers in European War Zones.

A conference of representative American Hebrews is scheduled for this city about November 1 to consider relief measures for Hebrews in the war zones of Europe. At a meeting of the American Jewish committee in New York yesterday, at which Louis Marshall presided, tentative plans were made for calling the conference.

It was decided that the conference shall be composed of not more than 100 delegates from Hebrew societies throughout the country. A special committee of seven was named to arrange for the conference and to invite the selected societies to name delegates not later than October 1.

In an address on "The Present Jewish Situation," the Hebrews of Washington were urged last night by J. H. Sprague, of New York, to join in an organized effort to bring relief to Hebrews of the beleaguered countries of Europe. The lecturer, speaking at the Old Masonic Temple under the auspices of the B'nai B'rith, said:

"We are the only members of our race today enjoying peace. We are enjoying the peace purchased by the sacrifices of American pioneers, and we must repay them for this blessing. It can be done by joining this organization in its relief work. It is a big work, and we have too few who are helping."

Joseph Baroness, of New York, also spoke.

Bryan to Speak Again In New York on Thursday

William J. Bryan, who has returned from New York, where he spoke Saturday night, and who has gone to Asheville, will speak again Thursday night. He will be the chief figure at a peace demonstration to be held in Madison Square Garden, New York.

Retired Army Officers' Promotions to Be Delayed

Bolo Bayonet Now Used By Philippine Scouts

The War Department has equipped Philippine Scouts with a bolo bayonet to take the place of the knife bayonet now in use.

The new bayonet can be used as a hand weapon, an trenching tool and for cutting away tropical underbrush. Ordnance experts are making tests to determine the utility of this bayonet for general use in the army.

EDISON INVENTS A NEW SEARCHLIGHT

Portable, It Can Throw Rays That Reach 3,000,000-candlepower.

WEST ORANGE, N. J., June 21.—Profiting by an experience of firemen in fighting the $3,000,000 fire at the Edison works on December 9, 1914, Thomas A. Edison has perfected another invention, which he took to his home in Llewellyn Park last night to test.

A few minutes after Charles Edison began operating the device for the education of his father, people living in the valley east of Llewellyn Park telephoned police headquarters and asked, "What is that light shooting out of the park?"

A policeman found Mr. Edison and his family enjoying the wonders produced by a new 3,000,000-candlepower searchlight, capable of throwing a ray several miles, the most powerful portable searchlight yet invented. It is very small and the power is supplied by storage batteries.

In the fire at the Edison plant the power was shut off. Mr. Edison conceived the idea of a portable searchlight, and two days after the blaze he designed a working model. Today he announced the perfection of his idea.
